VERSE 1

Bb F C F C Bb
Oh, light a candle's fire, it carries our good name
Bb F C F C Bb
What would you ask a campfi - ire? It scares me just the same
Bb F C F C Bb
And you, you've had it all along, an endless need for games
Bb F C F C Bb
Just don't forget, a candle's fire is only just a flame

Bb C F Bb

VERSE 2

Bb F C F C Bb
I hit certain from afar, failed to pull my weight
Bb F C F C Bb
But you were light, we traveled through the fall to arrive at our front gate
Bb F C F C Bb
Tonight, we rest beside the fire, a smile upon your face
Bb F C F C Bb
Just don't forget, a candle's fire is only just a flame

Bb Bb F

Bb C F Bb
If I had known, that to carry on that way
Bb C F Bb
It wouldn't show in the creases on your face
Bb C F Bb
If you should go, would you carry on my name?
Bb C F Bb
Just let it blow, in the fog on Bishop's Lane
