

A Little Knowledge

The Blockheads

INTRO

C B A G# G
C C7 F G#7 C G C

VERSE 1

C B Jesus walked on water in his sandals made of cork
Bb Shakespeare somehow turned up trumps and showed us ways to talk
G# Charles the second lost his head with ideas above his station
C C7 F G#7 C G C Adolph Hitler became unhinged whilst drumming up a nation
C B Darwin solved the human chain the strands of evolution
Bb A Einstein read and followed his thread and worked out the solution
G# G So cut through all the bullshit call a spade a spade
C C7 F G#7 C G C A little knowledge is a dangerous thing a potent marinade

VERSE 2

F Moses thought he'd chopped it off with his tablets made of stone
Fm Elliot Ness met his match when he collared Al Capone
D7 Isaac Newton grasps the theory that works out why things plummet
G G# G Gaug Sherpa Tensing Found himself while sitting on the summit
C B Napoleon was only small but left a large impression
Bb A Leonardo thought he knew it all so taught himself a lesson
G# G So fillet out the nonsense, remove all that's absurd.
C C7 F G#7 C G C A little knowledge is a dangerous thing so consider every word

INTRO

VERSE 3

C B
Rasputin was a maniac who got it slightly wrong
Bb A
Tchaikovsky knew how to syncubate and wrote the dying swan
G# G
Pavlova was a dancer, not a pudding platter
C C7 F G#7 C G C
Oscar Wilde disgraced himself and started idle chatter
C B
Nero played his violin whilst a fire burnt down Rome
Bb A
Captain Cook lost his way ten thousand miles from home
G# G
So weigh up all the info, school your loaf of bread
C C7 F G#7 C G C
A little knowledge is a dangerous thing so some clever bar steward said

INTRO

VERSE 4

F
Trotsky lived in Ruislip, Bardot stroked her poodles
Fm
Chairman Mao only had one coat, and Pol Pot scoffed his noodles
D7
Nelson sailed a man-of-war, Michaelangelo worked in clay
G G# G Gaug
Sam Pepys kept a diary and Chekhov wrote a play
C B
Mae West went to night school, Tolstoy was a clot
Bb A
Van Gogh only had one ear and Gandhi liked it hot
G# G
So fillet out the nonsense, remove all that's absurd
C C7 F G#7 C G C
A little knowledge is a dangerous thing so consider every word
C C7 F G#7 C G C
A little knowledge is a dangerous thing so consider every word
C C7 F G#7 D7 G C7M
A little knowledge is a dangerous thing so consider every word