C// C// C// C//

^C How much is that doggie in the ^G window,
The one with the waggly tail?
How much is that doggie in the ^G window?
^C I do hope that doggie's for sale.

^C I must take a trip to California, ^G
And leave my poor sweetheart ^C alone.
If she has a dog, she won't be lonesome, ^G
And the doggie will have a good home. ^C

^C How much is that doggie in the ^G window,
The one with the waggly tail?
How much is that doggie in the ^G window?
^C I do hope that doggie's for sale.

^C I read in the papers there are robbers, ^G
With flashlights that shine in the dark. ^C
My love needs a doggie to protect her ^G
And scare them away with one bark. ^C

^C How much is that doggie in the ^G window,
The one with the waggly ^C tail?
How much is that doggie in the ^G window?
^C I do hope that doggie's for sale.

^C I don't want a bunny or a ^G kitty.
I don't want a parrot that ^C talks.
I don't want a bowl of little ^G fishies.
^C She can't take a goldfish for a walk.

^C How much is that doggie in the ^G window,
The one with the waggly ^C tail?
How much is that doggie in the ^G window?
^{C//} I do hope that doggie's for sale. ^C ↓
