Maybe I'll see you in flagrante delicto
Grass below you, sky above
Celebrate spring with a crazy little thing called

I thanked him for the information
I cried a little when he flew away
I watched an episode of The People's Court
And I tried to plan my day
I called up my old lady
She wasn't home so I called my girl
I asked her if she'd like to join me as I
Entertain the world, And I said

BRIDGE

Ooooo child, you're gonna like it when we're taking each other's pants off

We were walking in the midday sun

Everyone who needed fucking well they
They got fucked today, So come on
