

KA MAKANI KĀ`ILI ALOHA (THE KIPAHULU ZEPHYR)

Words and Music by Matthew Kane

C G⁷
E aloha ae ana nō au I love the

C (G⁷)
I ka makani kaulana o ka `āina Famous wind of this land

C C⁷ F (Fm)
A`u e ho`oheno nei Mine to cherish

C G⁷ C C⁷
Ka makani kā`ili aloha The wind named Love-snatcher

Hui: Chorus:

F C G⁷ C
Ku`u pua, ku`u lei, ku`u milimili ē *My flower, my lei,
mine to cherish*

D⁷ F G⁷
Ku`u lei kau i ka wēkiu *My lei that I adore
above all others*

C C⁷ F D⁷
A he milimili `oe a he hiwahiwa na`u You are my favorite and precious to me

C G⁷ C
A he lei mau no ku`u kino A lei forever for my body

Palika June 208

Source: King's Blue Book, Copyright 1916, 1943 Charles E. King - This mele tells the story of a woman who deserts her husband. Heartbroken, he consults a kahuna who advises him to cast a love potion into the waters of a Maui beach, a place they often frequented. The wife returns. Music clip by Lani Lee

This Ukulele Society of America "Chord Sheet" is for education and personal enjoyment only. Selling this sheet or collecting a fee performing from this sheet without the express written consent from the copyright owner(s) is prohibited and may be punishable by law.