

Mary

Oingo Boingo

① = A ③ = C
② = E ④ = G

Capo 1st fret

Dm Eb
Oh Mary wasn't happy with the life that she led
Dm Eb
She was a simple girl without much to say
Dm Eb
So one day she just upped and left her dreary home
Dm Eb
And she left all her friends behind to wander all alone
F Cm
And at first she was afraid, she was so far away
F Cm
From her home but slowly she got to like it anyway
C# Bbm B
Oh Mary won't you please come, Mary won't you please come, Mary won't you please come

Dm Eb Dm Eb

Dm Eb
Well in time she found that the mountain that she had been
Dm Eb
Taught her whole life, that she must avoid
Dm Eb
And though at first it hurt, and no one could comfort her
Dm Eb
She finally came to appreciate it
F Cm
And she like it, she like it - oh wasn't she surprised
F Cm
And though still alone, she grew so much inside
C# Bbm B
Oh Mary won't you please come, Mary won't you please come, Mary won't you please come

Dm Eb Dm Eb F Cm F Cm

Dm Eb
 And after a time, she became so sublime
 Dm Eb
 She could look in peoples eyes and read their minds
 Dm Eb
 Though her hands would sometimes bleed and occasionally
 Dm Eb
 She would long for her past and the memories they bring
 F Cm
 She decided to return to her old home town
 F Cm
 And her heart was burning with all the things she found
 C# Bbm B
 Oh Mary won't you please come, Mary won't you please come, Mary won't you please come

Dm Eb Dm Eb F Cm G# Eb
 Dm Eb F Cm C# Bbm B

Dm Eb
 So, Mary came back and at first no one recognized her
 Dm Eb
 Face and her friends were all a little bit afraid
 Dm Eb
 When they heard what she had to say they all slowly backed away
 Dm Eb
 And her family took her aside and put their arms around her
 F Cm
 They said Mary won't you please come back to us now
 F Cm
 There is still time to repent for all your sins
 F Cm
 And Mary started to cry when she realized
 F Cm
 That she'd never come home again in her life
 C# Bbm B
 Oh Mary won't you please come, Mary won't you please come, Mary won't you please come

Dm Eb F Cm C# Bbm
 Dm Eb F Cm C# Bbm
 F Cm repeat to end