VERSE 1

Em G
In the annals of history
C D
And in much of our ancestry
 Em Bm A
The moustache holds a mystery
 G D
That's hard to resist for me
 Em G
I'm drawn to the masculinity
 C A7
A symbol there for all to see
 G A7 G A7
An optional accessory
D D6 D'
Of your blatant virility

CHORUS

Em B7 Bm A
I like a moustache, yes it's true
G C A7 D'
Any kind of moustache will do
Em B7 Bm A
English, Walrus the Fumanchu
 G C D G G C D G
If you've got a moustache - I like you

VERSE 2

Em G
I like every variation
C D
And every incarnation
Em Bm A
From the peach fuzz germination
G D
To the furry conflagration
Em G
They all get my attention
C A7
And in turn my deep affection
G A7 G
It needs no explanation
A7 D D6 D'
It's not an eyebrow on vacation

CHORUS

MIDDLE

Em G A7 Am
Give me Ron Burgundy, Ron Jeremy, Salvador Dali, Walt Disney
Em G A7 Am
Freddie Mercury, Jason Giambi. There's a pattern I'm sure you can see
Em G A7 Am
Give me Sonny Bono, Super Mario, Edgar Allan Poe even Frida Kahlo
Em G A7 Am
Martin Luther King and Otis Redding, Nietzsche and the Mahatma
Em G A7 Am
Give me Tom Selleck and Alex Trebek, Jim Croce and Robert Goulet
Em G A7
And lastly give me the BURT with a 'stache so sexy it hurts

CHORUS

VERSE 3

Em G
There are some with whom I will clash
C D
Who will dismiss the muzzy as trash
Em Bm A
If that sounds a bit brash
G D
Maybe you're being a little too rash
Em G
A lip tickler isn't slapdash
C A7
And it can handle all the backlash
G A7 G A7
To the man who can carry one with panache
D D6 D'
I want to be your Miss Stache

CHORUS x2

 A7 D
And if you can grow a moustache
 C7 G
Baby, I like you
