INTRO

A// A// A// A//

CHORUS

A
Oh, dear, what can the matter be,
E7
Seven old ladies got stuck in the lavat'ry.
A
They were there from Sunday to Saturday,
E7 A// A↓
Nobody knew they were there!

A
They said they were going to have tea with the Vicar,
E7
So they went in together, they thought it was quicker,
A A↓
But the lavat'ry door was a bit of a sticker,
E7 A// A↓
So the Vicar had tea all a-lone.

CHORUS

A
And it's ... oh, dear, what can the matter be,
E7
Seven old ladies got stuck in the lavat'ry.
A
They were there from Sunday to Saturday,
E7 A// A↓
Nobody knew they were there!

A
The first old lady was dear Mrs. Flynn,
E7
She prided herself on being quite thin,

<sup>A</sup>
But when she sat down, the poor dear fell in,
<sup>E7</sup> <sup>A//</sup> <sup>A↓</sup>
Nobody knew she was there.

CHORUS

<sup>A</sup>
And it's ... oh, dear, what can the matter be,
<sup>E7</sup>
Seven old ladies got stuck in the lavat'ry.
<sup>A</sup>
They were there from Sunday to Saturday,
<sup>E7</sup> <sup>A//</sup> <sup>A↓</sup>
Nobody knew they were there!

<sup>A</sup>
The second one in was sweet Mrs. Brewster,
<sup>E7</sup>
She couldn't quite see as well as she used-ter,
<sup>A</sup> <sup>A↓</sup>
She sat on the handle and said "someone goosed her",
<sup>E7</sup> <sup>A//</sup> <sup>A↓</sup>
Nobody knew she was there!

CHORUS

<sup>A</sup>
And it's ... oh, dear, what can the matter be,
<sup>E7</sup>
Seven old ladies got stuck in the lavat'ry.
<sup>A</sup>
They were there from Sunday to Saturday,
<sup>E7</sup> <sup>A//</sup> <sup>A↓</sup>
Nobody knew they were there!

<sup>A</sup>
The third one to enter was Abigail Kim,
<sup>E7</sup>
She went in the john on a personal whim,
<sup>A</sup> <sup>A↓</sup>
She somehow got caught 't'wixed the bowl and the rim,
<sup>E7</sup> <sup>A//</sup> <sup>A↓</sup>
Nobody knew she was there.

CHORUS

<sup>A</sup>
And it's ... oh, dear, what can the matter be,

E7

Seven old ladies got stuck in the lavat'ry.

A

They were there from Sunday to Saturday,

E7

A// A↓

Nobody knew they were there!

A

Then in a hurry was Merideth Murray,

E7

She had just eaten a big bowl of curry,

A↓

But when she got there it was too late to worry,

E7

A// A↓

Nobody knew she was there.

CHORUS

A

And it's ... oh, dear, what can the matter be,

E7

Seven old ladies got stuck in the lavat'ry.

A

They were there from Sunday to Saturday,

E7

A// A↓

Nobody knew they were there!

A

The fifth old maiden was Emily Clancy,

E7

She went in there cause something tickled her fancy,

A

A↓

But when she got there it was ants in her pantsy,

E7

A// A↓

Nobody knew she was there.

CHORUS

A

And it's ... oh, dear, what can the matter be,

E7

Seven old ladies got stuck in the lavat'ry.

A

They were there from Sunday to Saturday,

E7

A// A↓

Nobody knew they were there!

A
Well the sixth in line was little Miss Draper,
E7
She went inside but couldn't find any paper,
A A↓
All she could find was a bricklayers scrapper (eek!)
E7 A// A↓
Nobody knew she was there.

CHORUS

A
And it's ... oh, dear, what can the matter be,
E7
Seven old ladies got stuck in the lavat'ry.
A
They were there from Sunday to Saturday,
E7 A// A↓
Nobody knew they were there!

A
Well the last lady in was old Mrs. Mason
E7
The toilets were full, so she went in the basin,
A A↓
And that was the water that I washed me face in,
E7 A// A↓
'Cause I didn't know she'd been there.

CHORUS

A
And it's ... oh, dear, what can the matter be,
E7
Seven old ladies got stuck in the lavat'ry.
A
They were there from Sunday to Saturday,
E7 A// A↓
Nobody knew they were there!
