VERSE 1

A C#7 F#
Tom Cruise is so in love with Katie
Bm E7
At least all his people tell him so

A C#7 F

And while he thinks that she's a very special lady

Bm E7

It's probably not the way he'd choose to go

D A Bm F#m

And a lifetime of longing looks would cause too much distraction

D A E7

Good thing that he's not gay anymore

CHORUS

A C#7 D A

Tom Cruise is Tom Cruise crazy
D E7 A E7

Just be glad it's him not you
A C# 7 D A

If you had Tom Cruise's troubles
D E7 G#dim

You might be Tom Cruise crazy too
F#m A7

You'd flash your big white shiny smile

D Dm You'd buy expensive shoes

A C#7 F#

But you'd be the only man on Earth

D E7 A F#m

Who couldn't enjoy Tom Cruise, oh no

D E7 see tab

You couldn't enjoy Tom Cruise

VERSE 2 C#7 F# A Tom Cruise is always getting older He knows he'll never be that young again And when Tom Cruise looks back over his shoulder He sees a thousand younger leading men F#m Bm He knows someday he'll have to play an old retarded grandpa While someone younger plays his sexy son CHORUS MIDDLE 8 \mathbf{C} Dm Am Tom Cruise knows somewhere there's a place for him He's not of this world anymore VERSE 3 C#7 F# Somewhere in some secluded castle Bm Poor Tom Cruise sits staring at the wall F# And the outside world is always such a hassle Bm Sometimes he won't go out at all D Α There are millions who know his name F#m Bm Everybody loves him Why is it that he feels so alone?

CHORUS
